OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Co-operative Societies in the United Kingdom are registered under the Industrial and Provident Societies Acts, or as "Specially authorised Societies" in the case of village banks under the Friendly Societies Act. Their operations have also been facilitated by the Societies Borrowing Powers Act. None of these Acts, however, would be exactly suited to the needs of Co-operative Societies in this country.

2. The present Bill is a close approximation of the Indian Co-operative Societies Act of 1912, which is an improved edition of a Bill framed in 1904 by a Committee of experts who had thoroughly investigated the constitution and working of Co-operative Societies in many lands. The Indian Act has worked uncommonly well and the Imperial Committee on Co-operation of 1915, had little fault to find with it.

3. The present Bill embodies the amendments suggested by the Committee of 1915, and its provisions aim at giving that simplicity and elasticity in constitution and procedure which Co-operative Societies of every shape and form require. The Bill is simple in that it is a very shortened edition of the Companies Law. It is elastic in that it leaves much to rules and By-laws which can be modified from time to time as experience is gained. It provides for the constitution, registration and management of Societies, for the shares and interests of members, for special liens in favour of societies, for audit, inspection and inquiry into working and for dissolution.

4. The Penal clauses are copied almost literatim from the Friendly Societies Act 1896.

5. The rules to be passed under the law will be straightforward and most of the regulation of societies will be left to By-laws.

NOTICE OF SALE OF CROWN LANDS.

NOTICE is hereby given that 2 building allotments situate at Robinson Road will be offered for sale by Public Auction at the Land Office at 11 A.M. on Tuesday, the 21st February, 1922.

Lot No.	Area.	Annual Quit Rent.	Charges.
		$	$
105 ²⁶	2,271 square feet.	114	14
105 ²⁷	2,271 „	114	14

A substantial building must be erected on the land, subject to the provisions of the Municipal Ordinance for the time being in force and agreeably to plans and elevations to be prepared by the purchaser and approved by the Hon'ble the Colonial Engineer for the time being, within 5 years from the date of sale.

Any further information may be obtained at the Land Office.

ARTICLES AND CONDITIONS OF SALE OF EACH OF THE ABOVE LOTS.

- The title under which these lands will be held by the purchasers will be a Statutory Grant issued under Ordinance No. 34, a copy of which may be seen on application to the Collector of Land Revenue.
- Rent from the date of the sale, together with the charges mentioned, must be paid in full by the purchaser immediately after the land is knocked down to him.
- At the sale of the land, the highest bidder shall be the purchaser, and if any dispute shall arise between two or more bidders the Auctioneer may determine the same, or put the land up again at a previous undisputed bidding.

IV. No person shall advance less at any bidding than a sum to be fixed by the Auctioneer at the sale and no bidding shall be retracted.

V. The Government reserves the right to refuse any bid, and also to stop the sale.

VI. Immediately after the fall of the hammer, the purchaser shall deposit with the Auctioneer a sum of not less than twenty-five per cent on the price bid, and shall sign his name and write his address in the Sale Book, and his signature shall be held to bind him to complete the purchase according to these conditions.

VII. Should such payment not be made after the Auctioneer has made a formal demand for the same, the land shall be again offered to competition, when the bid of the person refusing to pay the deposit shall not be accepted for the lot in question.

VIII. At the expiration of one month from the date of sale, the purchaser shall attend at the Land Office in Singapore, and shall pay the balance of the purchase-money. A Statutory Grant will then be issued to him by the Collector of Land Revenue.

IX. In the case of the non-performance on the part of the purchaser of anything required to be done by him under Article VIII of these conditions, a notice in writing shall be sent to him by the Collector of Land Revenue, under his hand, calling on such purchaser to come to the Land Office within one week from the day of service of such notice to complete his purchase. Such notice may be served personally or by leaving it at, or affixing it in some conspicuous manner on or near, the premises indicated in the address given by the purchaser in the Sale Book.

X. If on the expiration of the time mentioned in such notice, the purchaser shall not have attended and paid the balance of the purchase-money, the land may, at the discretion of the Collector of Land Revenue, be re-sold at the defaulting purchaser's risk and expense, and any loss on re-sale together with interest at the rate of 12 per cent from the date of the original sale as well as the expenses of such sale and re-sale, shall be payable by such defaulting purchaser.

XI. Any sum deposited by a purchaser under Article VI of these conditions may, in case of a re-sale under Article X, be applied by the Collector of Land Revenue in satisfaction of any loss and expenses occasioned by such re-sale as far as the same will extend. Should the sum deposited be insufficient to cover the loss on re-sale and the expenses aforesaid, the difference shall be recoverable from the defaulting purchaser as a Crown debt, on the certificate of the Collector of Land Revenue.

XII. If, in consequence of delay in the preparation of the Statutory Grant, the Collector of Land Revenue shall be unable to issue the same to the purchaser at the expiration of one month from the day of sale, the purchaser may nevertheless, on paying his purchase-money in full, with any other monies required by these conditions to be paid, enter into possession of and hold the land, and the grant shall be issued to him as soon thereafter as practicable.

XIII. If any error, misstatement or omission shall have been made in this sale-list the same shall not vitiate the sale; in the case of an incorrect description of area, if it shall appear on re-measurement undertaken by the Government at its own instance, or at the instance of the purchaser under Article XV, that the area assigned to the land is less or greater than the actual area, a rateable reduction from or addition to (as the case may be) the sum bid shall be made, the measure of value being the rate per square foot bid for the area offered for sale.

XIV. A purchaser who is not satisfied that the land of which he is put in possession is of the area described in this sale-list shall be entitled to have such land re-measured by a Government Surveyor, provided that he applies to the Collector of Land Revenue to that effect within one month after the completion of the purchase by the payment of the balance of the purchase-money. Notice of the time of re-measurement shall be served on the purchaser, either personally or by affixing the same in some conspicuous manner at the address entered by him in the Sale Book.

XV. If upon such re-measurement it shall appear that the area as described in the sale-list is correct, the cost of re-measurement shall be paid by the purchaser and may be sued for as a Crown debt, on the certificate of the Collector of Land Revenue, but if the description as to area shall be found to be incorrect, no charge shall be made for the re-measurement. For the purpose of this Article, an area shall be held to be correct if any error discovered shall not exceed a proportion of 1 to 500.

XVI. The certificate of the Collector of Land Revenue on the result of the re-measurement shall be held to be correct.

XVII. The Government will not be responsible for any costs or expenses, legal or otherwise, incurred by a purchaser in settling questions of disputed area except as far as is herein set out.
